

Oak Woodland Restoration Field Day

Klamath Siskiyou Oak Network (KSON) invites you to join restoration professionals, agency managers, wildlife biologists, and private landowners for a day in the field!

Learn about oak habitat conservation occurring in southern Oregon and northern California, as well as opportunities for restoration on private lands.

Saturday, June 27th
8:30am to 2:30pm

© James Livaudais 2015

© Kate Halstead 2015

© James Livaudais 2015

Topics will include:

- ❖ Oak restoration practices and approaches
- ❖ Oak conservation program opportunities for landowners
- ❖ Oaks as habitat for birds and other wildlife

This event will take place in the Colestin Valley between Ashland and Yreka, where a large scale private lands oak conservation partnership program has been occurring for the past decade.

This is a free event, but registration is required. To register, please contact Kate Halstead no later than June 24th at keh@klamathbird.org or (541) 201-0866 ext 7#. Directions will be provided or carpooling can be arranged from Ashland or Yreka.

