

Klamath Siskiyou Oak Network Upper Rogue Oak Initiative Field Tour

May 28, 2026, 10 AM - 2 PM

Agenda v. 1.0

Hosted by the Klamath Siskiyou Oak Network \(KSON\)

Location: Lake Creek Grange and local field site

Address: 1556 S Fork Little Butte Creek Rd, Eagle Point, OR 97524

Lunch Order Form: <https://forms.gle/X2THKP4Xiy66HUUY6>

Logistics: Cell service is limited in this area. Travel from the Grange to the local field site is on a well-maintained gravel road with a large dirt parking area. Carpooling options will be available but not required. The field tour will include walking <2 miles on an uneven dirt forest road.

9:30 - Arrival, Check-In, & Coffee

10:00 - Opening Remarks & Project Highlights

Opening Remarks provided by the following speakers:

- KSON Coordinator - Klamath Bird Observatory
- Lomakatsi Restoration Project
- The Understory Initiative
- Tribal representative
- Oregon Watershed Enhancement Board
- Oregon Wildlife Foundation
- Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife
- Bureau of Land Management

Followed by a series of short presentations:

- The Big Picture: Why Oaks, Why Now
- Science & Monitoring
- Tribal Partnerships
- Landowner Engagement & Private Lands Strategy

11:00 - Transit to Field Site

Logistics: Gather in the parking lot to organize the carpool. People may drive separately to the field site if they need to leave early. We will travel part of the way on a gravel road that has potholes.

11:30 - Field Tour: UROI in Action

Logistics: We will be walking along an uneven dirt road. Sturdy shoes are recommended. This is considered a moderate walk because there are no places to sit except on the ground. Potential hazards include poison oak, bees, ticks, and uneven terrain.

Project highlights:

- Oak release and conifer thinning
- Native understory planting
- Prescribed fire
- Inter-Tribal Indian Youth Service Corps and workforce development
- Private landowner partnership
- BLM partner spotlight
- Wrap-up by KSON Coordinator

12:30 - Transit to the Grange

1:00 - Lunch & Networking

Logistics: Boxed lunches provided; please fill out the sandwich form with your RSVP.

2:00 - Adjourn
